

When The Langham, London was first opened in 1865 as Europe's first 'Grand Hotel', English merchants were already shipping and bottling wines from Europe's finest estates. My brief in creating this list was to develop a snapshot of 21st century fine wine production.

But I also wanted to capture the traditions of the London wine market. While the list focuses upon the more studied aspects of wine appreciation, It also acknowledges the fact that the vine has journeyed far beyond the confines of its old European home.

Embracing technology we are able to offer close to 100 of the 500 or so wines we list by the glass. Without ever having to draw the cork Coravin allows us to share a great bottle; one glass at time. Our wine team will guide you through the current selection.

Grower Champagnes

On a recent trip to champagne we had the opportunity to visit and taste with some amazing small vigneron. Many of the names on the bottles are not well known; but the liquid inside is lovingly crafted and full of character.

We hope you enjoy discovering them as much as we did
